

Volunteer Advocacy Services

Help Build Dreams!
Make a difference!

Are you:
Patient with people?
A good listener?
Dependable?

You can provide advocacy services for people living at the Sonoma Developmental Center who do not have family or conservators to represent them.

How?

Meet with residents for one hour a week and get to know them.

Attend meetings with them and help be their voice.

Reach out your hand and be a friend.

For more information contact:

Ross Long – Volunteer Advocacy Services Coordinator

Area Board 4 – State Council on Developmental Disabilities

(707) 938-6757

ross.long@sonoma.dds.ca.gov